A scholarship to attend CEEP courses in Cremona (Italy)

The Soroptimist Club of Cremona, which is in an agricultural area, right in the middle of the Po Food Valley, will join the Cremona Executive Education Program - CEEP – which will take place from May 1st to October 31st 2015, during the EXPO Milano.

The CEEP courses are designed to develop knowledge of the most innovative techniques applied in agriculture, zootechnics and food supply chain management (explore the CEEP courses catalogue at www.cremonafoodvalley.com)

The one-week Cremona Executive Education Program consists of :

- a wide range of courses given by experts from the Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore di Milano and from the agrifood sector,
- field trips to the most prestigious Italian farms, factories, laboratories, research centres
- a visit to EXPO

SI Club Cremona is looking for a professional woman (a government officer, an agricultural and food technician, a researcher, …), either Soroptimist or not, coming from Union in Africa (Madagascar, Kenya, Rwanda) or single Clubs wishing to attend the one-week program.

Among the candidates the winner will be chosen by the Club of Cremona and will receive free accomodation in Cremona and free attendance at the CEEP program.
